

FREE

ECOARTfest

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 19 • 1 TO 5 PM • RAIN OR SHINE

An afternoon of art, environmental tours and workshops in Abington Art Center's Sculpture Park.

BIRDING WITH RUTH

TOURS AT 1:00, 2:15 & 3:30

Join Ruth Pfeffer during the height of this year's migratory season. Thirty years of observing birds in Alverthorpe Park makes Ruth the perfect person to guide your binoculars. Tours are 30-45 minutes.

enjoy a chair massage with blue massage therapy services

QUICK TIPS FOR ENERGY CONSERVATION

Energy costs are rising, but there are some easy things you can do to conserve energy and lower your bills. Learn tips from energy audit experts, the Energy Coordinating Agency of Philadelphia, who work to develop a sustainable energy future – one household at a time.

FARM STAND BY PENNYPACK

Community-Supported Agriculture (CSA) brings sustainable, local, seasonal produce to its members who share in the harvest. Today you can purchase seasonal produce and learn about sustainable farming.

print double sided and use recycled paper

ALTERNATIVE TRANSPORTATION

Biking is a healthy alternative form of transportation especially in this time of high fuel costs. Keswick Cycle will be performing free bicycle safety checks, handing out water bottles to cyclists and talking about commuting by bike. While you're here, grab a regional bike map from the Bicycle Coalition of Greater Philadelphia.

WHITE DOG CAFE – HARVEST SUPPER – 5:30

Enjoy a meal with White Dog Cafe featuring seasonal flavors and locally grown, sustainable foods. The trend of sharing the harvest in this way is finding resurgence across our country. $50/person. BYOB. RSVP required by 10/13 at 215-887-4882 x207.

GREEN CLEANING

Most household cleaners contain toxic chemicals linked to health problems including asthma. Learn how to make effective and safe cleaners for your home through a mini "Green Cleaning Party" based on the kit from Women's Voices for the Earth.

ride your bike and get a safety check and water bottle from keswick cycle.

CHOICE AND THE POLITICS OF INVASION – 4:00

Richard Ryan is an artist and landscape architect who is a concerned friend of the Sculpture Park's forest. A little green enemy is smothering our native plants, Garlic Mustard. Join Richard in this "pep rally" and call to action. Sign up to help AAC defeat this invasive!

ENVIRONMENTAL SCULPTURE

TOURS AT 1:30 & 2:30

Join curator Sue Spaid for a tour of "Hovering Above" the 2008 Sculpture Park show that shifts the sculptures off the ground and puts them in the trees. Look up or you may miss it! Tours are 45 minutes.

PROTECTING NATURE

The Nature Conservancy's mission is to preserve the plants, animals and natural communities that represent the diversity of life on earth by protecting the lands and waters they need to survive. Can't argue with that!

bring cereal boxes, milk cartons, berry baskets, etc to be reused in a collaborative children's art project "sprawl for the small" which will be built 11/ 9 during a family workshop.

GARDEN MARKETPLACE

The Gallery Shop will have a stand featuring artist-made birdhouses and other gifts for nature lovers including wears by footprintbamoo.com.

Abington Art Center is a member-supported non-profit organization. Become a member today!

EcoArtFest is sponsored by:

David Pfeffer in memory of Daniel Pfeffer
 Birding with Ruth in memory of Daniel Pfeffer, Beneficia Foundation, Blue Massage Therapy Services, and Whole Foods Market.

515 Meetinghouse Road
 Jenkintown, PA 19046

www.abingtonartcenter.org
 215-887-4882

inspiring and strengthening our community through art and culture

visit join support volunteer